THE PURPOSE OF THE SUBJECT, LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By completing the course, students will be able to recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning themselves, their family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly. They will be able to understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues. They will be able to interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help them formulate what they are trying to say. They will be able to ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics. They will be able to use simple phrases and sentences to describe where they live and people they know. They will be able to write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings; fill in forms with personal details, for example entering their name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.

SUMMARY OF THE CONTENT OF THE SUBJECT

Greetings, introduction, personal data, family, leisure time activities, arrangement of appointments, daily routine, etc.

STUDENT'S TASKS AND PLANNED LEARNING ACTIVITIES:

During the semester students will participate in various classroom activities such as warmers, ice-breakers, asking and answering questions, reading and listening comprehension, listening for gist and details of authentic recordings, gap-fill, matching, mingling, pair work, group work, practising functional language, vocabulary in context writing informal letters.

EVALUATION OF THE SUBJECT:

The course has a sharp focus on diagnosis and the continual tracking of the improvement of skills with a view to exploring students' previous knowledge, interests and needs with the help of online placement tests and various oral and written exercises. Within the framework of individual, pair and group evaluation, checking and error recognition, students receive continuous feedback for their completion of oral and written exercises in and outside the course, which enables the assessment of the continuous improvement of the four language skills.

Evaluation criteria of written exercises:

- structure, form, style,
- linking words
- usage of language
- vocabulary

- appropriateness, quantity

Evaluation criteria of oral exercises:

- adequacy, quantity
- coherence, fluency
- accuracy
- vocabulary
- pronunciation
