THE PURPOSE OF THE SUBJECT, LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By completing the second semester of the Spanish I. course, students continue to consolidate their Spanish at an A1 level. They will be able to recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning themselves, their family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly. They will be able to understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues. They will be able to interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help them formulate what they are trying to say. They will be able to ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics. They will be able to use simple phrases and sentences to describe where they live and people they know. They will be able to write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings; fill in forms with personal details, for example entering their name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.

SUMMARY OF THE CONTENT OF THE SUBJECT

The aim of this subject is to continue improving the basic Spanish grammar and vocabulary of the students. At the end of this course students will be able to talk about free time activities, daily routine, telling how to go to different places. Will know to guides another person or ask to how to go another places. Will able to speak about her or his shopping and wearing habits. They have to write a composition of each topic and at the end of the course students have to pass a final written test.

STUDENT'S TASKS AND PLANNED LEARNING ACTIVITIES:

During the semester students are going to solve diverse written and verbal exercises in and outside the class communicating real life, modern and authentic subjects, for example: multiple choice exercises, associations, story writing, storytelling, playing roles, situation game, interviews, emails, messages, notes, completion of sentences, puzzle of sentences, text summary, subtitles, film dialogues, mindmap, word chain, online exercises, word games in which words are made up from a given list in syllables, dialogue puzzle, memory game, etc.

EVALUATION OF THE SUBJECT:

The course has a sharp focus on diagnosis and the continual tracking of the improvement of skills with a view to exploring students' previous knowledge, interests and needs with the help of online placement tests and various oral and written exercises. Within the framework of individual, pair and group evaluation, checking and error recognition, students receive continuous feedback for their completion of oral and written exercises in and outside the course, which enables the assessment of the continuous improvement of the four language skills.

Evaluation criteria of written exercises:

- structure, form, style,
- linking words
- usage of language
- vocabulary
- appropriateness, quantity

Evaluation criteria of oral exercises:

- adequacy, quantity
- coherence, fluency
- accuracy
- vocabulary
